Dear Sirs,

I represent an individual whose name is Wael Jelaidan. A judgment was entered against him in the Southern District Court of New York, and the Plaintiff's Attorneys have requested that I try to secure a license for them in terms of having the judgment satisfied. The funds to the best of my knowledge are located in Switzerland. I've left a message on 622 -2410, and simply asked if there's an attorney in the Office of Chief Counsel who has taken over Attorney Schisa's workload. Again, I am desirous of securing the license for Plaintiff's attorneys who secured the aforementioned judgment against my client. Simple question – how do we start the paperwork?

Very Truly Yours,

Martin F. McMahon, Esq.
